I am a driven, organised, and adaptable student in my final year of college, studying for a BA in Business Studies at Dublin City University, aiming to graduate with First-Class Honours. In my third year, I completed a 13-month internship at BioMarin Pharmaceuticals in a Global Process Transformation role. In this role, I was responsible for defining business problems and providing solutions through customer-focused projects and I gained invaluable experience. I am passionate about Business Analytics, and I am eager to begin my career in the field.

EXPERIENCE

Global Process Transformation Intern      June 2022 – July 2023

BioMarin International Limited | Dublin

An integral part of the GPT team working on multiple projects at once, individually and as part of teams. Defining problems and working with customers to solve them within an agreed-upon timeframe. Projects completed include:

- Intercompany Transaction Revamp: Transformation of a process which shipped drug products globally within the organisation. Awarded the responsibility to run the operation and subsequently trained in a replacement at the end of my contract. Led user acceptance testing meetings and process demonstrations to global supply chain teams while prioritising tasks to ensure on-time deadline adherence.
- Sourcing Policy: Project lead on a project that tracked and flagged any company spending that was potentially breaching the organisation's spending compliance policy. Created and maintained an excellent relationship with the sourcing compliance team and led the project from defining the problem to integrating the solution.
- Risk Register: Project lead on a global project, tracking and managing internal & external risks securely and confidentially. Worked with the global risk teams and provided a long-term solution for tracking and assessing risk.

Trainee Sales Executive      2020

Network International Cargo Ltd | Dublin

- Part of the spot-quote desk within the organisation for first-time and once-off sales.
- Assisting with customs queries relating to shipments.
- Working alongside the customer service team within the business to ensure customer satisfaction.

Restaurant Waiter      2017 - 2022

The Garden House Malahide | Dublin

- Working in a customer-facing environment as a landscaper and waiter for several years both part-time and full-time through school and university.
